

Croatia - Australia links...

The Croatians have a long history in Australia. From the 1850's gold rush to the present day, Croatian Australians have contributed greatly to our multicultural society. In recent years links between Croatia and Australia have increased and are providing employment opportunities for Australians with knowledge of the Croatian language and culture.